

EJERCICIO 41:

Use "the" when needed.

1. I'd like to talk to you about _____ history.
2. What history do you mean? _____ history of _____ art or _____ history of _____ science?
3. Well, I'm especially interested in _____ history of _____ old sailing ships.
4. Just think of _____ voyage Christopher Columbus and his sailors made in 1492!
5. _____ courage was needed to take part in such a journey.
6. _____ courage the sailors had to show in storms for example was great.
7. Surely they were afraid of _____ death.
8. But what do you think _____ main problem was?
9. Was it _____ time these voyages took?
10. Perhaps, yes, but it is also possible that _____ morale was the biggest problem.
11. And it was not easy to provide _____ water fifty sailors and the passengers needed.
12. _____ death of passengers was very often caused by bad food.
13. As _____ sailors had to work very hard, they needed good food.
14. " _____ life is always harder than you wish it were", you might say.
15. I researched the article with _____ help of a friend.

EJERCICIO 41: SOLUCIÓN

1. I'd like to talk to you about history.
2. What history do you mean? The history of art or the history of science?
3. Well, I'm especially interested in the history of old sailing ships.
4. Just think of the voyage Christopher Columbus and his sailors made in 1492!
5. Courage was needed to take part in such a journey.
6. The courage the sailors had to show in storms for example was great.
7. Surely they were afraid of death.
8. But what do you think the main problem was?
9. Was it the time these voyages took?
10. Perhaps, yes, but it is also possible that morale was the biggest problem.
11. And it was not easy to provide the water fifty sailors and the passengers needed.
12. The death of passengers was very often caused by bad food.
13. As the sailors had to work very hard, they needed good food.
14. "Life is always harder than you wish it were", you might say.
15. I researched the article with the help of a friend.